Pray

Stellar Kart

Its loud and clear
Your silence has been breakin your heart
Like no one hears
You feel you may have fallen too far
But even if
You dont know the right words to sayPray
Sit back and watch the scenery change
Hold on to the promise
That help is on the way, PrayIf you think
Youre not good enough to receive
What you need
Have a little faith and believe
God is not
A stranger to the things you might sayPray
Sit back and watch the scenery change
Hold on to the promise
That help is on the waySomething beautiful
Your miracle
Is waiting on you
Is waiting on youPray
Sit back and watch the scenery change
Hold on to the promise
That help is on the way, praySomething beautiful
Your miracle
Is waiting on you
