Just Friends

Eric Benet

This feels so wrong
(Love me)
This feels so wrong
(Love me)
This feels so wrong, I'm so confused
You give me love but you can't be true
You say you need your space and time
With or without you, I lose my mind
Oh yes, I know if meant to be
In the future we'll be hand in hand
But girl, right now, you're killing me
'Cause I know you're making love to another man
Do you really want to be just friends?
Don't you still love me?
It's so hard for me to understand
You say you love me
You call me for some time to spend
Just long as I'm out your door by 10
Platonic love will have to suffice
Can't bear the thought of you out of my life
I tried to end this misery
But I'm always picking up that phone
Swallow my pride, I beg and plead
But you always sing the same ol' song
We can be friends
Do you really want to be just friends?
Don't you still love me?
It's so hard for me to understand
You said you loved me
Turn the music down
Do you really want to be just friends?
Don't you still love me?
It's so hard for me to understand, girl
You said you loved me
Do you really want to be just friends?
Don't you still love me?
It's so hard for me to understand
You say you love me
Do you really want to be just friends?

Don't still, still love me?
It's so hard for me to understand
You said you still loved me
Do you really want to be just friends?
What me? Oh, girl
So hard, so hard, so hard, understand
Do you really want to be just friends with me?
I wanna be your, oh, baby
Do you hear what I'm talking about?
