Disease

Sevendust

I stuck my head in the sand and cut my face to hell
And there was nothing, nothing but my life unanswered
The truth has died and in the world you wanted to find
There was nothing, nothing but the unforgivenWhat you gonna do for me?
What you gonna do for me?
What you gonna do for me?
What you gonna do?Destroy all you see
Tattoo the world, change everything
Save the world for me
Tattoo the worldCan't you see, can't you see? If you ever want to stop it
Do I care anymore if there's a new beginning?
The simple plan is broken every time it's given
I needed trust and love but grab the hand of hate
To help me up again, to fuck me up againWhat you gonna do for me?
What you gonna do for me?
What you gonna do for me?
What you gonna do?Destroy all you see
Tattoo the world, change everything
Save the world for me
Tattoo the worldDestroy all you see
Tattoo the world, change everything
Save the world for me
Tattoo the worldStop it
Here it comes, here it comesDestroy all you see
Tattoo the world, change everything
Save the world for me
Tattoo the worldDestroy all you see
Tattoo the world, change everything
Save the world for me
Tattoo the worldCan't you see, can't you see? If you ever want to stop it
