

The Chair

The 69 Eyes

Just walk away from these dreams
And talk the pain what it seems
Angel of my revelation
I don't really want to let you walk
Away from these dreams You gotta turn it all over, you gotta turn it all over
All over again Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery Walk away from these dreams
And talk the pain what it means
Angel of my revelation I don't really want to hurt you
So walk away from these dreams You gotta turn it all over; you gotta turn it all over
All over again Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
