

Your Sword Versus My Dagger

Silverstein

I'm cutting through
You're bleeding out
And I would tell the truth
But I can't help myself

red rushes out, dissect this nerve
And I will stop myself
Before I reach my cell

I wasn't asking for the world
And you know that I'm not one to follow through

All these city streets
The people look the same
And I can see your face
And I can hear your name
I wasn't asking for the world

Your stabbing in permanent scars
And you'll justify it all inside yourself
You've finished me
my pulse is gone
And you're satisfied to put this all to hell
I wasn't asking for the world
And you know that I'm not one to follow through

All these city streets
The people look the same
And I can see your face
And I can hear your name
I wasn't asking for the world

Drink the poison when you think it's over
Stabbing yourself when you think it's too late Tragic endings are your thing
You love them
You love letting go
The endings the same

Drink the poison when you think its over inevitable, Verona lives inside of you

I wasnt asking for the world
And you know that Im not one to follow through
All these city streets
The people look the same
And I can see your face
And I can hear your name
I wasnt asking for the world
