I Said I Love You

The Mavericks

We've been meeting this way for a wile
Always keeping our hearts in denial
But the rules of the game are as such
There are some things you never should rushWith the way that you're looking tonight
It was only a matter of time
Before I got so overwhelmed
And I just could not help myselfI said I love you I didn't mean to
But the moonlight just gave me away
Now that I said it, try to forget it
And pretend it was all a mistakeI'll keep trying, though I'm denying
This feeling that I know is true
Stumbling and falling and still after all
I keep falling in love with youWhat's the point of this masquerade
After all of our cards have been played
Now there's nothing for me left to hide
I hope I have fate on my sideEither way I've got nothing to lose
Surrender is all I can do
And if you should be mine in the end
I'll remember it all happened whenI said I love you I didn't mean to
But the moonlight just gave me away
Now that I said it, try to forget it
And pretend it was all a mistakeI'll keep trying, though I'm denying
This feeling that I know is true
Stumbling and falling and still after all
I keep falling in love with youI said I love you I didn't mean to
But the moonlight just gave me away
Now that I said it, try to forget it
And pretend it was all a mistakeI'll keep trying, though I'm denying
This feeling that I know is true
Stumbling and falling and still after all
I keep falling in love with youStumbling and falling and still after all
I keep falling in love with you
