Goddamn

The Elektrocution

(Verse 1)

My words cut just like razor blades I'm just like a hand grenade you pulled the pin now you're too late excuse me while I detonate you live the life of luxury deep down inside your misery subsides and thrives for company now morally you're crumbling

(Chorus)

Goddamn need some help
I can't help myself
'Cause my girlfriend's in love with somebody else Goddamn it's too bad really wished it would last always wanting what I'll neer have So Goddamn

(Verse 2)

I must forgive I hesitate excuse me while i separate you lived the life and lied to me I gave you almost everything I wore my heart upon my sleeve
I gave you almost all of me..

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

Goddamn need some help
I can't help myself
My girlfriend's in love with someone else.
Goddamn it, what the fuck?

Goddamn need some help

my girlfriend's in love with someone else
Goddamn it's too bad
always wanting what I'll never have so goddamn.
