

Gunfight

Laurence Fox

Don't fall in love
If you don't want a gunfight
If you're not prepared to fall
I'm sorry dear
I'm looking for a ray of sun in here
In the end there is another sunrise Oh I know that we're at war
But honey please before I sleep
I want to wine you, dine you, not deny you
Hold you higher, always higher
I'm sorry for my words Our wars, our wars, our wars
Our wars are fuelled by a lifestyle baby
It's time to change it to turn
And walk away, my vice is perfectly primed
My hands have been so beautifully tied Oh I know that we're at war
But honey please before I sleep
I want to wine you, dine you, not deny you
Hold you higher, always higher
I'm sorry for my words Only love, only love, only love can save
Only hope, only hope drives this fear away
I want to live, I want to live, I don't want to die I just want to wine you, dine you, not deny you
Hold you higher, always higher
I'm sorry for my words
I want you to wine me, dine me, not deny me
Hold me higher, so much higher
