Writing On The Wall

Social Distortion

There was a time when you were proud
You looked up to me with big eyes
And I could do no wrong
There's something inside
It's clearly tearing both of us apart
Ooh, there's something inside
I wonder where you are tonight
And what you did with your day
Can't find no words to say
Did you feel the sun?
Did you feel the warmness of my heart?
Ooh, did you feel at all?
They say if you love someone
You've gotta let them go
And if they return to you
Then surely how you'll know
Ooh, I can read the writing on the wall
Ooh, but I can't let go
They say if you love someone
You've gotta let them go
And if they return to you
Then surely how you'll know
Ooh, I can read the writing on the wall
Ooh, but I can't let go
I'm hopelessly aware
Of the good and the bad traits we share
It's like looking at myself
And I know what our tongues
I could have had the things to fade away
Ooh, but my intentions are wild
They say if you love someone
You've gotta let them go
And if they return to you
Then surely how you'll know
Ooh, I can read the writing on the wall
Ooh, but I can't let go
Ooh, I can't let go
Ooh, I can't let go
Ooh, I can't let go

Ooh, I can't let go
