By The Cathedral

Keren Ann

Darling, I will remember, darling
I've been mellow and tender
I've seen water by the cathedral
Under the maple it was in April
You wore a raincoat by the cathedral
I wasn't able, I was unableSomeday, you will forgive me darling
Someday, you will believe
That, I've seen thunder by the cathedral
Under the maple it's was in April
You wore a raincoat by the cathedral
I wasn't able, I was unableDarling, I will remember, darling
I've been mellow and tender
I've seen water by the cathedral
I've seen thunder but I wasn't able darling
