Roll Over

Perfect Confusion

You've gone the same
From day one
I have to laugh
Don't think you'll ever change
Every time you screw it up
Funny how I take the blame
Why is everything designed
To try and get a rise out of me?
Can't believe you never guessed
Only playing second best to ya
You oughta know I'm in control
I ain't gonna just roll over
You think that I'm here to please ya
But you don't even know, oh baby
I got you wrapped around my finger
Don't open your mouth
You're so predictable
Cos everyday you're outta here
So listen up
You know you never leave
You think you're baby now
'Cos I got you by the time
And it takes to realise the truth
I'm using you
You wanna know, I'm in control
And the more you think you won
The stronger I become

You think that I'm here to please ya
I ain't gonna just roll over
But you don't even know, oh baby
I got you wrapped around my finger
I ain't gonna just roll over (roll over)
You think that I'm here to please ya
But you don't even know, oh baby
I got you wrapped around my finger
Why is everything designed
To try and get a rise out of me
But the more you think you won

The stronger I become
You oughta know I'm in control
I got you wrapped around my finger
I got you wrapped around my finger
I ain't gonna just roll over
You think that I'm here to please ya
But you don't even know, oh baby
I got you wrapped around my finger
You think that I'm here to please ya
I ain't gonna just roll over
But you don't even know, oh baby
I got you wrapped around my finger
