Iolite

Ohlayindigo

Something's missing that I can't replace
Like a flower in a dessert place
I can grow but no way I can shine
I live on borrowed time

I am myself but far from complete
This shape I'm in feels quit obsolete vaporised into a state of air
I need to return to where

I belong in the sea
There's nothing here for me
and I dream of the waves
I return myself to grace

Chorus:
I'm sinking down tonight
I am iolite
This is my sacred place
I am iolite

I'm in the clouds staring at the tide getting closer to where I reside
I'm still miles away in my secret place
(No one will ever know)

It's a state of mind in this darkened place
I can hold my breath and disappear for days
The water makes me feel alive

So I need to follow the tide to the sea
There's nothing here for me
And I dream of the waves
I return myself to grace

Chorus:
I'm sinking down tonight
I am iolite
This is my sacred place

I am iolite

Bridge:
Let me take you to this place
We could share all the beauty and grace
Let me take you to this place
Iolite,iolite, iolite, iolite

Chorus x 2
