

Season Of Faith's Perfection

Stratovarius

Seasons they come seasons they go
Changing my life as they pass me by
In the sunrise i am born again
Drying my tears letting them die
When you feel like a ship without sails
In the sunset i die again

Observing them in their perfect flow
In my silent truth i scream these words
What will you do when all fails?
And the pain makes you blind
When desperation fills your mind
THE HOPE IS LOUD!
Never give up
