New Heart For Christmas

Kill Hannah

Navy pier at Christmas you can go at 3am
There will be no one
The Ferris wheel still turns
As though it's a popular attraction still
And when the songs slowly play
Throw the old broken PAA new heart for Christmas
She needs a new Christmas
'"cause you broke it all apart
Put it back together again"Strange holiday maniquins still move
As though someone was watching besides me
Their joints are rusty
They chirp like inside
There's something alive
Oh no, somehow it strikes meI need a new heart for Christmas
'Cause you broke it all apart
Put it back together again
You hit me oh so hard
Put me back together again
