

Where My Heart Belongs

Dreamshade

We never miss a thing until it is all gone.
This song is all I've left,
It takes me back to you. Missing the place I always loved
So maybe my choice was wrong.
Missing the days when I felt strong
So here I'm done. Let me go.
It has been far too long.
Now I know I'm coming home,
where my heart belongs. I can't believe it's real.
I never thought I could make it
but after all these years
I'm coming back to you. Missing the place I always loved
So maybe my choice was wrong.
Missing the days when I felt strong
So here I'm done. Let me go.
It has been far too long.
Now I know I'm coming home
where my heart belongs.
Let me go.
It has been far too long.
Now I know I'm coming home
where my heart belongs. Missing the place where I felt loved.
I'm back where my heart belongs.
Missing the days when I felt strong.
I'm back where my heart belongs.
