

Wonder No More

Bronze Radio Return

Ghost with a name, it used to haunt me
Taunt me with shackles and chains
When I used to believe
But the ghost was alive and hollow inside
Her body still warm with the tears in her eyes
She wouldn't leave
She wouldn't leave Four long years and I know where I've been
I've been stuck up in a slow rewind
From the sweat of my mind
It comes and it goes from the shadows below
It hung high so I laid low
And now I leave it behind
And now I leave it behind Oh oh oh A mile down the road that the black stones pave
I ran from the sea and got caught by her wave
She took me away
While my faith was blind, my eyes could see
I was sure that the cure would remedy me
But it was just the disease
Just the disease Now I stop thinking about it
It's wasted enough of my time
I catch a breeze and throw a fit
Now I know Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh I wonder no more, I don't wonder for the sake of making new mistakes, oh no no no
I wonder no more, I don't wonder for the sake of making bodies ache and my head so sore Wonder no more now
I wonder no more
Wonder no more now I wonder no more Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh Wonder no more now I wonder no more
Wonder no more now I wonder no more

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>