

A Sip Of Wine Chased With Cyanide

A Static Lullaby

Glorify her smile
Condemn his frownChoke on the phrases left unsaid
Silver bullets that pierce my ears
Shadows of demons melt my persona
Taken from the memory of the darkness lockCan I walk amongst the slave chained to the hopeless and lenched from your smile
Can I float upon your tears swealtering the hate for our non-existanceSend the dove
Bring her a star
Throw me a raven
Spoon out my heartWith the last ounce of dignity
I will pray
Scream out
My mistakes to the heavensSend the dove
Bring her a star
Throw me a raven
Spoon out my..
Spoon out my heartSpoon out my heart
