No Way in Hell

Bomfunk MC's

No way, no way, no way in hell
No way, no way, no way in hell
No way, no way, no way in hell
No way, no way, no way in hellExclusive, excuses, only produces, abuses, the juices
The loosest of ends that tend to send the false inner sense
That me and you together could actually be friendsNo way in hell, we gonna let you, oh no
No way in hell, we gonna tear up the show
No way in hell, we gonna let it all flow
No way in hell, all roads lead to RomeYeah, we're gonna kick your monkey ass
Yeah, we're coming with a blast
Yeah, it's the funky sound class
Yeah, we're gonna make it everlastThey said we couldn't do this but I know we can
You can't keep a good man down, a goddamn
You and you and yours just better keep still
'Coz I haven't even started with my spick and my spillNo way in hell, we gonna let it all go
No way in hell, we gonna walk through the snow
No way in hell, you gonna put me on the hold
No way in hell, I think I'm really getting oldYeah, we're gonna kick your monkey ass
Yeah, we're coming with a blast
Yeah, it's the funky sound class
Yeah, we're gonna make it everlastNo way, no way, no way in hell
No way, no way, no way in hell
No way, no way, no way in hell
No way, no way, no way in hellSomething wrong with your life when you go the lowest low
Do you recognize yourself when you look in the mirror?
Can't control your mind or flip your tiny brain
But don't hate the player if you can't play the gameNo way in hell, we gonna let it all go
No way in hell, we gonna walk through the snow
No way in hell, you gonna put me on the hold
No way in hell, I think I'm really getting oldYeah, you've got your future in your hands
Yeah, we got you peeing in your pants
Yeah, you gets no fucking chance
Yeah, got you steppin' on quicksandParty arty arty arty arty arty arty ya
Party arty arty arty arty arty arty ya
Party arty arty arty arty arty arty ya
