

Do It Again (feat. Big Sean)

Early Mac

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Up all night, I'mma do it again
Yeah I made some mistakes,
That a nigga wouldn't change, I'mma do it again
So I hit once, hit twice, so high had to do it again
And I'mma live my motherfucking life
Like I might not do it again, do it again Yeah, late night text from my ex, I'mma do it again
Got rich like a bitch one time,
I'mma fuck around and do it again
I know I ain't doing what I'm supposed to do
But fuck it I'mma do it again
How you feel, how I feel, like I made this shit real
And I'm loving how it feel, I'ma motherfuckin' do it again, do it again Uh, do it again, yeah, do it
I guess once wasn't enough so let's do it again
Yeah, run it back again and again
God damn, man, I should've been on ESPN
Yeah, hit it so many times I had her thinking 'bout myself just fucking her friend
Yeah, arm out the window with the blocka blocka
Then when it's when the ducking began
I do it whatever the when
Get me money out your pockets, you don't need it, then I'm out
I ain't gotta give a reason 'cause I know
Never seen a nigga fix a problem if he broke
If I take a L then that be the day I smoke
Looking at the bitches, I'll take anyone I want
Give me what I need, but please don't give me what I don't
A lot of sex, no stress, not a lot of dates
If she ain't got no ass on it then she out of shape
I love it when I hit it from the back (That's right)
I love it when the liars want her back (That's right)
I love it when they give me money back
It's funny how these funny niggas act
Getting money where these funny niggas at

From the front and in the back, where these funny niggas at
From the front and in the back
Now these bitches call me God well I put 'em on the map
She was falling out with troopers, steady making out with MacUp all night, I'mma do it again
Yeah I made some mistakes,Â
That a nigga wouldn't change, I'mma do it again
So I hit once, hit twice, so high had to do it again
And I'mma live my motherfucking lifeÂ
Like I might not do it again, do it againYeah, late night text from my ex, I'mma do it again
Got rich like a bitch one time,Â
I'mma fuck around and do it again
I know I ain't doing what I'm supposed to do
But fuck it I'mma do it again
How you feel, how I feel, like I made this shit real
And I'm loving how it feel, I'mma motherfuckin' do it againYou should be motivated but you mad I made it
Aggravated 'til I'm like let's get collaborated
Now you in my face with a fake congratulations
You and your girl stood together, oh, I'm glad y'all made it
Yeah, y'all together, but when I walk in it's funny how y'all get decapitated
And the holy matrimony is out the window when she's on my mattress naked
My MasterCard got her masturbatin', got damn, I made it
I'm in the MGM Grand like I own that shit
So much paper I could loan that shit
Fuck that though, I'd rather just Stallone my shit
Jesus piece on, I had to stone that shit
Getting stoned every stuck, every day I do
My old bitches praying that I never, ever say "I do"
Got success, on dÃ©jÃ vu
Sean Michael Anderson is who you make the pay out to
You, you be on the Internet straight cyberhating
While I'm up in fur like I'm fucking hibernating
In the cold cold city, where you just gotta make it
Where the people violated then their pupils dilated
Looking like a black eye pea
I swear life's harder with a black ID
So I'mma get that motherfucking white money
Every time I black out on beatsUp all night, I'mma do it again
Yeah I made some mistakes,Â
That a nigga wouldn't change, I'mma do it again
So I hit once, hit twice, so high had to do it again
And I'mma live my motherfucking lifeÂ
Like I might not do it again, do it againYeah, late night text from my ex, I'mma do it again
Got rich like a bitch one time,Â
I'mma fuck around and do it again
I know I ain't doing what I'm supposed to do

But fuck it I'mma do it again
How you feel, how I feel, like I made this shit real
And I'm loving how it feel, I'mma motherfuckin' do it again, do it again
Up all night, I'mma do it again
Yeah I made some mistakes,
That a nigga wouldn't change, I'mma do it again
So I hit once, hit twice, so high had to do it again
And I'mma live my motherfucking life
Like I might not do it again, do it again, do it again
