

More Than Kind

Antiskeptic

Promise of last night
Few hours it's another day
Keys and car to drive
And fade into eternity I cried myself to sleep
I wished you well and it
Seemed to be so true
A reminder of all that's left
I wake up cold
And sing to you, so fallen beliefs
You're more than kind, premise to a fight
You're leaving in a fit of hate
Strong enough to cry
On any day than today
