

Down The Memory Lane

Virgin Prunes

Down to memory lane You may be happy, you may be sad
You may be good, you may be bad
Let me tell you a secret so
Cause I know something you don't know Oh here we go, round and round again
Oh here we go, down the memory lane Oh yes, it's the place to be
To sing a song, and jump for glee
One thing that makes me so happy
It's the place where you really want for me Oh here we go, round and round again
Oh here we go, down the memory lane
Lots of people have problems
They don't want to do their? sums?
Just like a girl we used to know
Jennifer? Coate?, was her? Oh here we go, round and round again
Oh here we go, down the memory lane Every song has a sad side
Don't be so snide, don't be so bright
And don't tell lies
I can see it in your face
Don't be seen in the bare
Cause you'll be caught in the snare If any young man entices you
Don't be led astray
Let the answer be on his 'neck?
Let the answer be on his 'neck?
Down the memory lane (And I'll tell ya somethin' else
It was Mary bloody? Coate?
That's the young one that was?, the whore)
