

Look Away

Shelter

I see a trail, a grudging light
It's burning bright, it takes me home again
And I can't understand the plan
I try to fight, but I cannot contend
A magnetic force, it's a true north
Where is it's source, must be a friend
But what I have begun
To feel that I will easily transcend
Just look away, just walk away
Just look away now
No hope is lost I never fear
That I'll be desperate, left out on my own
I feel it, but soon realized
The whole time I never was alone
Busy city, crowded clubs
Or touring in a van away from home
If we can listen we will hear
A voice that will teach and help us grow
Just look away, just walk away
Just look away, now
I'm feeling down
I'm not alone, not on my own
I don't know what you've been through
But my guess too is life is always rough
It leaves us bruised and bloodied
It makes us hard
It makes our skin real tough
When my world crumbles on me
As it does each week, it is not the end
I look inside, I listen too
'Cuz I'm sure there's an ally within
Just look away, just walk away
Just look away
