

It Must Be You

Barbra Streisand

It must be you
Making me feel things I can't explain
For some reason I'm just laughing at the rain
I can't believe, who I am has changed so suddenly
I'm doing things I never thought I'd do
This is not like me
It must be you It must be love
Nothing else could turn me upside down
Or plant my feet so firmly on the ground
What's happening?
Everything I say, I want to sing
Everything I've dreamed is coming true
What's this feeling in my heart?
It must be you Hold me now like this forever
Let this moment go on endlessly
I'm alive when you're beside me
That's how I know that we were meant to be Hho oh, hho ohh What's happening?
Everything I say I want to sing
Everything I've dreamed is coming true
What's this feeling in my heart?
It must be you
It must be you
