

Kingdom Come

Bloodgood

Just once is never enough
You got to try it over and over
Sometimes won't satisfy you
Cause constant is your numberJust like a rat in the lab
You're a creature of habit
You see the crack in your face
And you've got to grab itAre you ready
Now the day is done
Are you ready for the Kingdom
Kingdom to comeMaybe you got something cookin'
Maybe not is more like it
Could be you're locked in a contract
And there's no new negotiationsOr maybe you got tired of trying
So you stopped and just let go
No maybe about it
There's someone you ought to knowGet ready to go
Get ready to leave
To be ready for judgement
You must believeGet down on your knees
Put your face to the floor
What ya waitin' for
Waitin' for, waitin' for
