

No Yesterday

Donna Beasley

My heart's been burned till it can't be recognized
And yours is charred like stone
Not much left that can be revived
Most of the feeling is gone

But let's make fire like it's never been done
We'll reinvent the wheel like we never saw one
Let's forget all the things that made us this way
Let's love, let's love like there's no yesterday
Let's love, let's love like there's no yesterday

We both need a love that will drench us like rain
Yet we cover our hearts and we hide
Open up, oh let us not be afraid
To let forces of nature collide

Let's make rain like it's never been done
We'll reinvent the wheel like we never saw one
Let's forget all the things that made us this way
Let's love, let's love like there's no yesterday

Burn me up
Then cool me down
Move me
Turn me around

Let's make love like it's never been done
We'll reinvent the wheel like we never saw one
Let's forget all the things that made us this way
Make love, make love like there's no yesterday
Make love, make love like there's no yesterday
Let's love like there's no yesterday
