Whoever Broke Your Heart

Murphy Elmore

I kinda wanna thank him, but i kinda wanna knock him out, i kinda wanna push him up against the wall i kinda wanna buy him a round, i kinda wanna make him pay for whatever he put you through, but all again if it wasn't for him guess i would have never got to you, whoever broke your heart, must have been crazy, whoever didn't see the girl i see right now wasn't looking at you baby, if he didn't do what he did then you never would have ended up right here in my arms, if i know one thing is true i aint never gonna be like whoever broke your heart, i dont even know his name but i got a couple for him. yea i dont know what he was thinking when he was drinking but he must have kept poorin, because no body in the right mind, would have never said goodbye, to a angel like you yea theirs a lot of things id like to say to whoever broke your heart he must have been crazy, whoever didn't see the girl i see right now wasn't looking at you baby, if he didnt do what he did then you wouldn't have ended up right here in my arms, if i know one thing is true i aint ever gonna be like whoever broke your heart, whoever when and did you wrong whoever, left you all alone, im sure glad that his gone i just wanna help you move on, whoever broke your heart, must have been crazy whoever didnt see the girl I see right now wasn't looking at you baby, if he didn't do what he did then you wouldn't have ended up right here in my arms,if i know one thing is true i aint ever gonna be like whoever broke your heart, im sure glad hes gone, ill never break your heart, whoever when and did you wrong whoever left you all alone
