Walking Away

The Generators

Im changing this situation, its all but over now.
When the storm passes, and comes down crashing
I wont be under those clouds.
Im walking away,
nothing left remains,
Im walking away,
all the debts are paid,
Im walking away,
but the scars,
and stainsIm walking away I had some burden to rid, its water under the bridge so Ill be moving on.
See yeah those days are dead,
and now I raise my head, and I wont forget where I came from.
I got my rite of passage overcame the damage
its all but a blur of the past, See it hit home hard,
and it left its scars,
but that monkeys off my back.
Im walking away,
nothing left remains,
Im walking away,
all the debts are paid,
Im walking away.
See I took off the chains,
to relieve the pains, and its now just a blur of the past See I had no reason to stay in this fucked up place so there I went walking away.
Yeah
