

I Give Up

Heart

I know you got a secret
That you really don't want to show
You hid something somebody
Did to you and you guard it like a lie And I know what I'm talking about
'Cause I've seen it leaking out
But I'm with you baby now
And I'm not sneaking out 'Cause I know and I feel
You're not showing me
How can I change what
You won't let me see I give up, I give in, you win this time
Knowing you means let you go
I give up, I give in, you win this time
But don't be long, baby don't be long
I love you, I love you
(I love you, I love you) I know eves droppers might find out
More than they might wanna know
Yeah, I know but I feel that you're loving me
How can I change what you won't let me see I give up, I give in, you win this time
Knowing you means let you go
I give up, I give in, you win this time
But don't be long, baby don't be long
I love you, I love you
(I love you, I love you)
And I know you, I love you
(I love you, I love you) I give up, I know you got a secret
That you really don't want to show I give up, I give in, you win this time
Knowing you means let you go
I give up, I give in, you win this time
But don't be long, baby don't be long
I love you, I love you
(I love you, I love you)
And I know you, I love you
(I love you, I love you)
