Choice

E-Spectro feat. Escenda

What is the purpose of your life?
To love, to dream, to be succeed.
To make a family, to rise from the knees...
Or live in constant dependence on drugs.

You choose your path or white dust made it for you?
To live, to count each passing minute.
This was your dream of? Think well.
If you have the power to choose.

Open your eyes to live, to live as a full person.
Be free or die.
Open your eyes to live, to live as a full person.
Be free or die.

What is the purpose of your life?
To love, to dream, to be succeed.
To make a family, to rise from the knees...
Or live in constant dependence on drugs.
