Homeland

Mick Hanly

Homeland â€“ Mick Hanly

Chorus
This is my homeland, my heart is here
These are the voices I long to hear
No matter how far I may roam
I have a homeland I have a home
I have a homeland I have a home

When the sun goes down and the evening light
Moves like a ghost to starry night
When serious twinkles do hypnotise
It's good to sit and realise

Chorus

I love our stories and the teller's gift
I love the lonesome pipers drift
No cleaner fields do I need to see
These simple things they comfort me

Chorus

If for some reason I had to quit
This river bench where I sit
I think Iâ€™d weep for an old refrain
And never dam the rain again

Chorus x 2

Lyrics Submitted by Anna Breen

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/