

Enough

Casey McQuillen

When'd the world get so hard?
When did life get so scared?
As the youth fell from his eyes
He realized what he left behind

And now the eyes in the mirror
Are looking back a little clearer
And he don't know who he needs to be
But baby, won't be easy

He turns and says now I know
How I can fall so low

Mama why's the world so tough?
My best doesn't seem enough
All I want to do is love
Ain't that enough?
Ain't that enough?

And he's trying to be strong
But sometimes life can be so wrong
As the tears threaten to fall
He is trying so hard to stand tall

He turns and says now I know
How I can fall so low

Mama why's the world so tough?
My best doesn't seem enough
All I want to do is love
Ain't that enough?
Ain't that enough?

He's tired and scared
Cause no one is there
In his mind when he can't sleep
The world is so tough
And nothing's enough
Just know that you are loved

Mama why's the world so tired?
I'm feeling like my life's on fire
Nothing can bring me higher
Than love, love, love, love, love
Ain't that enough?
