I'm Ready

Mint Condition

Oh yeah, let me tell you now, oh
Gotta tell you girl what's been on my mind
Been such a big influence, influence in my life
I know you called on me and I said I had no time
I was frontin' on you I must've been blind
Come over her my dear
Gotta get close to your ear
'Cause I wanna make it clear
That all my fears are gone
I'm ready for the thangs
(That you've been talkin' 'bout)
I'm ready, won't you shine?
(And remove my clouds)
I'm ready for a place
(Safe to park my heart)
'Cause loneliness now in the world is off the charts
I'm ready for the way
(You wanna rub my back)
I'm ready for what happens
(After in the sack)
I'm ready to quit playin'
('Cause I've had enough)
I'm ready for this boy and girl to rise in love
Playa playa man, I was in my zone
In my freaky world, anything was on
But when I met you girl you were like a mirror
Only you made me see, things deeper and much clearer
About the man inside
Who always tried to hide
From real intimacy in his life
Now all my fears are gone
People always said to me
(That when I meet her, I'll know)
'Cause when you look in her eyes and touch her hand
(You won't let, her go)
You'd be a fool to look away
(I better act like, I know)
My days of foolin' round are gone
(Now that I've found her that's for sure)

I'm ready for the thangs
(That you've been talkin' 'bout)
I'm ready, won't you shine?

(And remove my clouds)
I'm ready for a place
(Safe to park my heart)
'Cause loneliness now in the world is off the charts
I'm ready for the way
(You wanna rub my back)
I'm ready for what happens
(After in the sack)
I'm ready to quit playin'
('Cause I've had enough)
I'm ready for this boy and girl to rise in love
I'm ready for the time you tell me not tonight
'Cause now it's about us not just me, it's alright
I'm ready for the day when I'm miles away
When temptation's round but instead I pray
Ready for a bundle standin' one foot five
And see that bundle have your same beautiful eyes
Can't say enough that I'm ready girl
In every way, everyday, everyday, every way
Everyday I thank God for you
I'm ready for the thangs
I'm ready, won't you shine?
I'm ready for a place
'Cause loneliness now in the world is off the charts
I'm ready for the way
(You wanna rub my back)
I'm ready for what happens
(After in the sack)
I'm ready to quit playin'
('Cause I've had enough)
I'm ready for this boy and girl to rise in love
I'm ready for things that you've been talking 'bout
I'm ready, won't you shine and remove my clouds?
I'm ready for a play safe to park my heart
'Cause loneliness now in the world is off the charts
I'm ready for the way you wanna rub my back
I'm ready for what happens dreaded in the sack
I'm ready to quit playin' 'cause I've had enough
I'm ready for this boy and girl to rise in love
Let's rise on
Let's rise on

Let's rise on
