Diamond Eyes

Rishloo

We are not machines we are not machines programmed, encoded we are so much more, we are so much moreoh the lights burning like fireflies caught in a web electricity hums in our heads we're overwhelmingly fearlesswhen diamond eyes light up the sky, I promise you that we can change the world when diamond eyes light up the sky, I promise you that we can change...we are not your routines we are not your routines despite what you've told us we are all one, we are all one...
