

'alright With Me (feat. Anne-marie and Prgrshn)

Wretch 32

No matter what I tell them
Seems I always end up misunderstood
No matter my intention
All they gotta say is I'm up to no good
I ain't even mad
Why would I be mad?
It's all alright
It's all alright with me The kids don't wanna turn down
They with a bad chick hoping she ain't fertile
I got two kids, baby, I'm the third child
I just put the work in, hoping that it works out
See, I got two bitches at the same time, I know
She just drop it down 'till she can't go low
Sick and tired of being sick and tired, I'll throw up
When I drop Growing Over Life, I'll grow up
Say they got ice but it must be Carte D'Or
When you're living sky high, you design your own floors
Running by my ride, holding on the car door
Slip it into gear five, why I got the Porsche for Rappers sold less, claiming that they know more
Did their core fanbase even want an encore?
Had a Cuban Link, had to take my chain off
She be looking at me funny every time I take off, ayy No matter what I tell them
Seems I always end up misunderstood
No matter my intention
All they gotta say is I'm up to no good
I ain't even mad
Why would I be mad?
It's all alright
It's all alright with me The kids don't wanna work now
The student loan got them feeling it will work out
They even told me on the low they prefer it loud
They just turn up 'till they're floating with them fur clouds
See, my niece is on fleek and in love with coco
But four years ago she was singing don't go
Says she wants a watch from her favourite uncle
Michael Kors let the G-Shock, where'd the time go?
Had to ask if she knows something I don't
Had the longest conversation on the shortest drive home

Said she sees what I'm saying, staring in her iPhone
Guess she didn't get the message but there weren't a typo
Lord-a-mercy, you see the god in me?
That'll probably never let me fly economy
I never had a better dream when I was asleep
I guess the Ox in me really wants to top the league
I'ma keep gunning No matter what I tell them (keep gunning)
Seems I always end up misunderstood
No matter my intention
All they gotta say is I'm up to no good
I ain't even mad
Why would I be mad?
It's all alright
It's all alright with me Every day I make a prayer (it's all alright)
Lord, make sure I'm way up (it's all alright)
I'ma make my own way up (it's all alright)
No sleep, I'ma stay up It's all alright with me
Every day I make a prayer (it's all alright with me)
Lord, make sure I'm way up (it's all alright with me)
I'ma make my own way up (I'ma make my own way up)
No sleep, I'ma stay up Step to the clouds
On the pennies, we look down
But the pennies make pounds, what do you want now?
But the pennies make pounds, what do you want now?
We all want bags to be loved
Don't let 'em make a sound
But don't drink water 'till the well runs out
But don't drink water 'till the well runs out
Place to sleep so we're alright (alright)
Food to eat so we're alright (alright)
Alright, it's alright
Alright, it's alright
Bun the tree so it's alright (alright)
Bun the weed so we're alright (so we're alright)
Alright, it's alright
Alright, it's alright with me
