Devo Freak

Ashley Stove

Dance moves all summer long
You're sticking in my head
As soon as I get down a step or two
You change them up againMachine, gotta lotta chrome
And so much metal tone
And a silver suit
And red headphonesYou gotta like a girl like that
A little smooth a little out of tune
My devo freakBack at school I'm trying to talk to you
You got such an attitude
It's phony, but I'm only a mortal too
And I'm trying to choose
And I want you because of your dance moves
And you're lonely
And you're only a mortal tooAnd you gotta like a girl like that
A little smooth a little out of tune
My devo freak
