

I Trust You

Skillet

Learning again that I am not my own
Crawling back to where I belong
Caught in between knowing You and trusting me
Come on take a ride out of in between
Now I know, I need You
When I can't see, I'll trust You
And when I get weak, I trust You
And when that I just can't let it go
I trust that You are in control
Shelter me, so I can find some peace
Grabbing hold of You is letting go of me
It's easy when I remember
I possess all that lays beyond my grasp
Your power commands the weight off my back
Now I know, I need You
When I can't see, I'll trust You
And when I get weak, I trust You
And when that I just can't let it go
I trust that You are in control
I trust You, I trust You
When I can't see, I'll trust You
And when I get weak, I trust You
And when that I just can't let it go
I trust that You are in control
I trust You, I trust You, I trust You
I trust that You are in control
Now I know I trust You
