

Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea

Deepfield

Here I drift afloat,
withered from the sun.
Night is drawing near
and with it comes the fear.X's for my eyes,
where the stars once lied.
I didn't need you then
and I don't need you now
(2x)Here at the end of the world,
who's gonna save us now?
Man overboard
Where is your savior now?I was born forgiven, nails needn't be driven.
Holy water softened,
in a flame-resistant coffin.Only sound that rings,
starving bird that sings.
I didn't need you then
and I don't need you now
(2x)Here at the end of the world,
who's gonna save us now?
Man overboard
where is your savior now?i»¿Where is your savior now?
(3x)I will drift away
(2x)
Blessed are the saved.
Broken and afraidI will drift away
(2x)
We are all unsaved.
We are all to pray.Here at the end of the world,
who's gonna save us now?
Man overboard
where is your savior now?
(3x)
