

Won't Come Off

Jawbox

Tripwire eyes kindle this smile
To more than skin-sized
Sweet as a chance to slip time I'm good, gone Down on the hip One second cut from the arc of a swan-dive
Pulled out tight to the pitch of a taut line Good, gone Down on the hip I'm good, gone
Down on the hip I think the shaking style Glide in this spell or hold up for the story tell Fixing solution to suspend the farewell I'm good, gone Finger to the lip I think the shaking style Good, gone I think the shaking style Until the shaking stops I think the shaking stopped
