

Can't Cheat Karma

Zounds

One, two, three, go
I've got an ego
It won't let me go
And what am I gonna do? A B C D
Paranoia's killing me
I'm dying on my aching feet
What a way to go Roll up, roll up
People always stroll up
Say, "Why don't you grow up?"
No, thank you Big cats, small cats
Some cats are fat cats
Those cats are bad cats
What we gonna do? There's an awful lot of people in the world today
There's an awful lot of trouble on the streets these days
And it doesn't seem to matter what you do or say
If a change is gonna happen, got to help it on its way A change is gonna come before too long, I know
Peace has gotta come along, could be wrong, I know
But I just don't know what I can do You don't trust me and I don't trust you
I bet you wish you did and I know I do
Why have you got secrets? 'Cause I know you have
If you've got something to hide then it must be bad A change is gonna come before too long, I know
Peace has gotta come along, could be wrong, I know
But I just don't know what I can do You don't trust me and I don't trust you
I bet you wish you did and I know I do
Why have you got secrets? 'Cause I know you have
If you've got something to hide then it must be bad A change is gonna come before too long, I know
Peace has gotta come along, could be wrong, I know
But I just don't know what I can do
