American Psycho

Treble Charger

What's the problem with the human race?
With someone like you, no matter where I turn
I can't escape your double faceDon't want to listen to the radio
'Cause they don't know
Or stick around just to hear I told you soHow could we make it without you?
I should have known better to doubt you
I thought I'd heard the end of itAnd now I know how far you'd go
To be the next freak show
American psychoCover of the magazines
Patron Saint to troubled teens
Wish, I never heard your nameTomorrow could be just another day
Means nothing to you
A misdemeanor or a felony that's okayDon't want to wait for a second chance
So take a stance, it's your turn
For the spotlight, the big danceHow could we make it without you?
I should have known better to doubt you
I thought I'd heard the end of itAnd now I know how far you'd go
To be the next freak show
American psychoCover of the magazines
Patron Saint to troubled teens
Wish I never heard your nameAnd they all want to know
What I already knowWhat am I supposed to do
When you know that it's all true?
That you stole that you lied that you knewPrima donna self absorbed
Wide awake and never bored
Party binge and purge and see
Results of plastic surgerySpotted at the hottest shows
Interview on Charlie Rose
They all want a piece of youAnd now I know how far you'd go
To be the next freak show
American psychoCover of the magazines
Patron Saint to troubled teens
Wish I never heard your nameAnd they all want to know
How far you had to go
And I already know
How far you had to go
