

American Psycho

Treble Charger

What's the problem with the human race?
With someone like you, no matter where I turn
I can't escape your double face Don't want to listen to the radio
'Cause they don't know
Or stick around just to hear I told you so How could we make it without you?
I should have known better to doubt you
I thought I'd heard the end of it And now I know how far you'd go
To be the next freak show
American psycho Cover of the magazines
Patron Saint to troubled teens
Wish, I never heard your name Tomorrow could be just another day
Means nothing to you
A misdemeanor or a felony that's okay Don't want to wait for a second chance
So take a stance, it's your turn
For the spotlight, the big dance How could we make it without you?
I should have known better to doubt you
I thought I'd heard the end of it And now I know how far you'd go
To be the next freak show
American psycho Cover of the magazines
Patron Saint to troubled teens
Wish I never heard your name And they all want to know
What I already know What am I supposed to do
When you know that it's all true?
That you stole that you lied that you knew Prima donna self absorbed
Wide awake and never bored
Party binge and purge and see
Results of plastic surgery Spotted at the hottest shows
Interview on Charlie Rose
They all want a piece of you And now I know how far you'd go
To be the next freak show
American psycho Cover of the magazines
Patron Saint to troubled teens
Wish I never heard your name And they all want to know
How far you had to go
And I already know
How far you had to go

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>