

Just Breathe

The Unlikely Candidates

I have no memories
Just feelings lingering
Like a dog that's been kicked
So many times that he's sick
Bound to bite a hand and not know why
Each day when I arise
I find the love of my life
But my touch to her is strange
And I have nothing to say
She takes a part of me, says no goodbye
Oh please
Just breathe
Just breathe
Just breathe
There's a vacuum in my mind
Stars collapsing in my eyes
I live my life but it's not mine
Just breathe
I have a heart to heart
With someone at the bar
Nothing humane about the beings
It's all distance and programming
His vacant stare says I'm not listening
Then the room it starts to spin
A masquerade of mannequins
Recombine knock off cliques
Like a rubix cube of things to say
Each emotion is coated with plastic paint
From the fumes I faint
Oh please
Just breathe
Just breathe
Just breathe
There's a vacuum in my mind
Stars collapsing in my eyes
I live my life but it's not mine
Just breathe
Oh please
Just breathe
Just breathe
Just breathe
There's a hole in side my lungs
Nothings clever nothing's fun
Before you start is when your done
Just breathe
Its all been said

Its all bee done
Just close your eyes
And have some funFlew spaceships to the moon
Conquered that point of view
But tell me what did it prove
How little man can really do
I bet that now gravity just seems cuteOh please
Just breathe
Just breathe
There's a vacuum in my mind
Stars collapsing in my eyes
Just breatheOh please
Just breathe
Just breathe
Just breathe
There's a hole in side my lungs
Before you start is when your done
Just breatheCan I learn to live again (I'm staring into the abyss)
Still one unanswered question (Can't take my eyes off it)Out of the bar (I'm staring into the abyss)
On to the street (Can't take my eyes of it)
Against the wall
The bricks I heave
Just breathe
Just breathe
