

The Vietnamese Telephone Ministry

The Fiery Furnaces

The vietnamese telephone ministry I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

Damn it all, damn it all to hell

Damn it all, damn it all I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

Damn it all, damn it all to hell

Damn it all, damn it all Preserve me, preserve me, protect me, save me

So vile, so violent

Whose thoughts are spent

So vile, so violent

In thinking how they may

So vile, so violent

My steps betray

So vile, so violent

How in a foul mishap may me entrap

Who hid in traitor grass their cunning cord may catch me as I pass I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

Damn it all, damn it all to hell

Damn it all, damn it all I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

I thought myself an unworthy thing

Despairing of my case all the time, boys

Damn it all, damn it all to hell

Damn it all, damn it all I went to the right road ministry at 4801 s. Normandie
