Goodbye

Ghost of the Robot

I don't care what people're gonna say about it I just wanna sit here and drink your sweet wine Know you're gonna say you're too young for me but Think if I kiss you that would be fine Know how it's gonna end before it ever starts now Gonna give me love sweeter than pie Part your lips as if you're gonna kiss me Say a word that's gonna break meBye, bye bye goodbye Bye, bye bye goodbyeChristopher Robin gave old Pooh up Grown up, didn't need Pooh no more Babe, believe me this ain't the first time I've been thrown down on the playroom floorBye, bye bye goodbye Bye, bye bye goodbyeBye bye baby, baby bye bye Bye bye Bye bye baby, baby Sorry baby, I'm just fastwritten & performed by James Marsters
