A Rainy Day Song

Chase Coy

Rain, rain
Go away
Please come back
Another day
But not today
'Cause i'm not ready
To say goodbye
To these golden rays of sunshine.I believe
That if you leave
I'll be just fine
Yeah, i'll be fineBut for now i'm stuck here waiting for
The sun to come and stop this awful downpour.And the clouds will clear
And i will hear the sound of singing birds outside My windowRain, rain
Go away
Please come back
Another day
But not today
'Cause i'm not ready
To say goodbye
To these golden rays of sunshine.
