

Hope Remains

Times of Grace

Crushed by the weight of your sorrow there is nowhere left
Trying to fight the might in the darkness and weaken all love
But it's hidden from your faceSeeking to find the path you should follow
 Breathe in peace
 Surrender yourself to the hopes of tomorrow
 SurrenderIt is always in your spirit
 This world is yoursHold on to faith, hold on to love
 Hold on to who you are
 You're not alone, don't lose sight
 We will rise aboveWe are the breath of life
 Our hope remainsIn these times of grace
 A sacred life we must embrace
 For generations to come
As we break down the ways of ourselvesLook in my eyes
 Open with passion
 And the spirit I'll follow
Until the rest of the sunWe are the purpose, undefeated
 Carve your name in the face of today
 EmbraceHold on to faith, hold on to love
 Hold on to who you are
 You're not alone, don't lose sight
 We will rise aboveWe are the breath of life
 Our hope remains
 We are the breath of life
Our hope remainsHold on to the faith, hold on to love
 You're not alone, don't lose sight
 Our hope remains
