

All I Have

Haste the Day

The beauty in your eyes still sustains me
And I know if I were to spit in your face You would take me back
You would love me
You would take me back
I know you would love me If I were to stab you in the heart
You would bleed for me if it made me happy
If I were to stab you
You would bleed for me I am nothing that's of worth to you
Take all I have
Though I may never understand it
I won't stop believing You offer me another chance
A new solution
An' I don't understand it
But I won't stop believing There is nowhere I would rather be than in your arms
You've proven time and again who you are I continue to run away
But you're right here
You take me back
You're right here I am nothing that's of worth to you
Take all I have
Though I may never understand it
I won't stop believing You offer me another chance
A new solution
An' I don't understand it
But I won't stop believing I am nothing that's of worth to you
Take all I have
Though I may never understand it
I won't stop believing You offer me another chance
A new solution
An' I don't understand it
But I won't stop believing
