

I Will Come

Alpha Rev

Ever since we
Walked the face of earth
There've been watching for the time
No one needs to be mistaken
There's a place for you tonight I will give you what you wishing
I will give you everything
And you will be so numb
I will be tying you up
You will never feel a thing And I will come
For you I will hold you
I will defend you
No more bullets
No more led
There is hope here in the weather
I'm yours now, you are free
