

The Sun's Gonna Shine Again

Ray Charles

When I'm done, mess again
Lord and my baby don't understand
Well, I know a child
That the sun, sun gonna shine again, shine again Well, you said that you'll always be mine
Lord, it would always treat me kind
But still I know, Lord
That the sun, sun gonna shine again, shine again Yeah, Lord baby Well, my skies are so cloudy grey
Oh, Lord, baby since you, since you been away
But I know Lord
That the sun, sun gonna shine again, yeah, shine again
