Don't Stop

Saving Jane

This is when the ink stops flowing
This is when my head starts going
This is when I just cant get it outThis is when the hits keep comin
Just when I think Im on to something
This is when the bottom bottoms outI promise good enough for you
Then I never keep it
I pace the floor at night
When all the pretty world is sleeping
And all the world is sleepingWhen the lights go down
And the girls are screaming
Dont stop now
Then I catch my breath
And my heart is beating and all Im thinking is Dont stop nowThis is when my hands are shaking
This is when the rules are breaking
This is when the music plays too loudThis is when its now or never
When it goes from bad to better
This is when it all makes sense somehowI promise good enough for you
And pray that I can keep it
And all the world is watching
While Im open mouthed and dreamingI promise good enough for you
And find that I can keep it
And all the world is right with me
And all we are is breathingWhen the lights go down
And the girls are screaming
Dont stop now
Then I catch my breath
And my heart is beating and all Im thinking is
Dont stop nowThis is when the ink starts flowing
This is where my heart is going
This is when my hands belong to you
